LeaderPoint® Partners with IEEE to Offer Management Development Sessions to Members

LeaderPoint®, a company specializing in executive and management development sessions throughout the United States is partnering with the IEEE Education Partners Program to offer their members the Executive Experience® session.

The session is a five-day, comprehensive development program designed to advance leadership and management skills. The Executive Experience® will help participants:

- Practice using systematic tools for strategic planning
- Diagnose and correct dysfunctional group dynamics
- Focus personal development in specific areas
- Develop a management mindset for improving business results

Each session has an assessment component which provides a summary of LeaderPoint's® observations, the participant's comments, and specific recommendations. Participants can contact LeaderPoint® at any time for follow-up work, questions, and concerns. For more information on LeaderPoint® visit <http://www.leaderpoint.biz/ieee.htm>.

IEEE is a non-profit organization and is the world's leading professional association for the advancement of technology. It has more than 370,000 members. Through its global membership, IEEE is a leading authority on areas ranging from aerospace systems, computers and telecommunications to biomedical engineering, electric power and consumer electronics among others.

Members rely on IEEE as a source of technical and professional information, resources and services. To foster an interest in the engineering profession, IEEE also serves student members in colleges and universities around the world. Other important constituencies include prospective members and organizations that purchase IEEE products and participate in conferences or other IEEE programs. The IEEE name was originally an acronym for the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers, Inc.
